Making Memories - The SLICE

The Slice

Treasure Seekers News

December 3, 2008

This is it! We're ready!

Monday was the first day of December, and the official countdown to Christmas begins!

Stuff those advent calendars with all the goodies you can find! Now here is the question: does your family 'count down' from 25 to 1, like NASA does to the big lift off, or do you 'count up', as in counting your blessings?

We'd love to hear the story of how you and your family count off the days until Christmas. Email us at info@treasuredmemoriescrapbooking.ca

We'll share one story a week on our web site. If it's your story, we have a special gift for you at the store!

Of course, at Treasured Memories Scrapbooking, we are also building traditions. This year, we are introducing our own Countdown Calendar. Starting Monday, December 1st, enjoy a treat from our Karen Foster Christmas Countdown Calendar, each day you visit us. When your purchase is over $20.00, you'll receive a ticket to enter our Countdown to Christmas prize basket!

So whether you 'count down' or 'count up' we look forward to counting the days with you!

New Product Alert - The SLICE

We've been exploring the many creative possibilities of the newest little die cutter on the market, Making Memories' Slice.

It's an amazing little machine that cuts images from 1" to 4", perfect for your album pages and all of your card creations. One of the best features of the Slice is its ability to operate on the built in battery, cordless and portable, weighing less than 2 pounds.

Unlike other electronic cutters, there are no mats to replace, so operating costs are minimal. Storage space a challenge? Not any more! Slice has a foot print of 6" square, including the cutting mat, and it's design cards are less than 1" square!

Seeing is believing, so visit us at the store for a 'hands on' demonstration, and experience the fun of designing with The Slice.

Starter kits at a special gift giving price. We have limited quantities on hand, but there is still time to have yours for Christmas.

We are placing our last Christmas order Friday, December 5th. Call to reserve one, today!

The first 8 people to register will be the lucky participants. Call today to ensure your place in this very popular class.

Brads, brads, brads!

It's amazing what these dots and spots can do on a scrapbook page or handmade card.

Here is a list of some of the creative ways that brads can be used in your stamp and scrapbooking projects.

- Bulbs on a Christmas tree
- Centers for letters
- Candy on a gingerbread house
- Buttons on a snowman
- Buckle on Santa's belt
- Stepping stones on a garden path
- Bullet points for a list on a scrapbook page
- The dot of a "j" or an "i"
- Poinsettia centers
- Angel eyes
- Snowflake 'hangers'
- Pompoms on toques

With a little imagination, brads can be used for so much more than just holding papers together.

Binding Tools

Another new 'toy' is Zutter's Bind it All, Version 2. Unlike the blue version 1, Version II is, you guessed it, pink!

This little wonder punches perfectly aligned holes through paper, acrylic and chipboard and then, in one motion, binds it all together into books of any size, up to 12 inches long.

For all your well loved recipe books, children's school art that's beyond the page of the binder, for a guest registration book, and even for a unique scrapbook created by you, Bind It All keeps it all together for you.

While counting down the days until Christmas, be sure to experience a Bind it All demonstration.

Copic Markers

We're expanding our collection of markers for in-store use, and invite you to try them out for yourself.

Register for one of our Copic cards classes, or come in for a quick demonstration.
