Treasure Seekers News

January 10, 2009

Treasured Memories invites you to think... "Less is More!"

January is a great time to organize, sort and de-clutter your work space.

Treat yourself to more organization and storage units, so you can spend more time creating, and less time looking for stuff!

All of our totes, storage and sorting units are on sale, Saturday January 10th, to Sunday January 16th, only!

With our Wall to Wall sale, continuing until January 16th, we are featuring more embellishments, adhesives and stamps, than have ever been on sale at one time!

Paper, you ask? Oh yes! All Christmas themed paper is included in our "Less is More" thinking, but only until January 16th!

Choose your favourites now, while we still have a supply of these terrific items. Remember, it is often impossible for us to obtain popular styles and colours after our supplies have been sold out, so be sure to get sufficient quantities to finish your project.

We are very excited to introduce our new Page a Month Club, designed to inspire you to complete at least 2 pages a month, telling the world all about You!

Of course, you can make these pages about anyone, but the program is designed, with you in mind.

The first Page of the Month Club class is January 24th repeated on January 29th - the first kits are in store now featuring the Basic Grey Ambrosia Collection for January. The Bittersweet Collection, shown at the right, will be featured in our February class.

All participants will have the option of publishing their masterpieces on our website for the world to see!

NEW - Layout of the Month Class

In the spirit of our "Less is More" theme, we have created a second, monthly class for Scrapbookers.

Our Layout of the Month class starts on January 17th and will feature a one or two page layout, following seasonal themes which are universal and easily adaptable to your personal photos.

The January theme is "Resolutions" - this is your chance to scrapbook your commitments to your photos for 2009. Katelyn has created a unique layout with room for 24, or more, personal goals for 2009. Say it, dream it. Write it, mean it!

Stamp of the Month

Our very popular Stamp of the Month Classes continue in January.

The theme this month is Something's Cooking!

Our little toaster is just too cute, and his friend the coffee perk is a stand up kind of guy!

For sure, don't miss the chef. He has to be right out of some European restaurant, with his turned up moustache!
