Treasure Seekers Newsletter - CONTEST

July 18, 2009

Hi [fname],

For those who love a contest, here's one that we don't even have an answer for, yet!

Basic Grey will be releasing their newest lines at Summer CHA, July 28th to 31st.

They've given us a sneak (see below) of what's coming, but no titles or images. So, who can guess what the four new lines will be called?

Send us your set of four titles, by email, or drop your guesses into the store in person. Your entry will become part of the Basic Grey Titles contest.

We'll choose the entry coming closest to Basic Grey's new titles, July 28th. If none of the entries are close, we will award a prize for the most creative response!

It's just a short week away, so get your entries in right away!

Just provide your name, phone number, and your four guesses, by email here or in person at Treasured Memories Scrapbooking store.

Contest closes at 5:00pm, Saturday July 25th.

Why enter? To win a package of Basic Grey product from the new releases!!

Brand new, free stuff - get your entries in!
